SARASOTA COUNTY PROPERTY APPRAISER 2022 ANNUAL REPORT

A Message from Bill Furst

The Sarasota County Property Appraiser Annual Report contains an overview of the trends in market and taxable values for real and tangible property in Sarasota County. The information in our 2022 annual report is based on data, market trends, and other factors as of January 1, 2022.

2022 market values saw an overall increase of 38% over the previous year. Taxable values saw an overall increase of 17.55%. The cumulative value of all parcels in the county is once again the highest it has ever been at $132.7 billion, eclipsing last year's record. Continuing our new housing trend, over 4,723 new real property parcels were added to the tax roll this year. The vast majority of these were residential single-family parcels.

Our website continues to be an extremely valuable and popular tool, with residents, visitors, and potential buyers and sellers using the search function and maps more and more each month. Our online homestead exemption application is also saving thousands of trips to our office each year.

As always, my office continually strives to provide fairness and transparency to all taxpayers. We pride ourselves in delivering efficient and friendly service to the residents of our county, answering questions, and bringing resolution to issues as they arise.

Please feel free to contact me at PA@SC-PA.com with your comments and suggestions.

Sincerely,

Bill Furst, CFA

Property Market (Just) Values

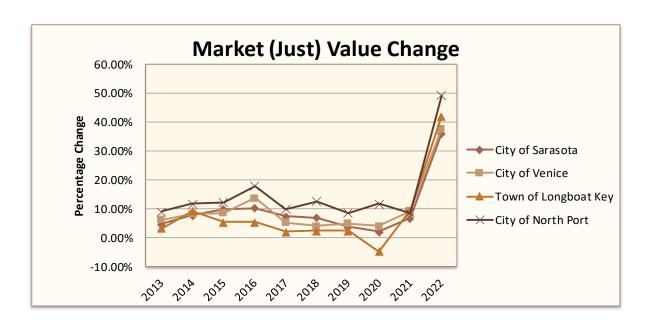

It is the responsibility of the Property Appraiser's Office to determine the value of all real property and tangible personal property (e.g. business equipment) as of January 1 of each year. Market (Just) Value is established through the appraisal process governed by Florida Law. When determining the Market Value, various factors are considered, including the amount a willing buyer would pay a willing seller for the property, the location and condition of the property, and the income generated from the property. Foreclosure and distressed sales, although considered, are not included as part of the analysis. The Market Value is effective as of January 1st of the current tax year.

Taxing Authorities Millage Rates

There are 65 different taxing authorities within Sarasota County. On an annual basis, each Taxing Authority establishes a millage rate by dividing their proposed budget by the taxable value less the value of new construction. The millage rate is then multiplied by the taxable value of each property located within the taxing district. These taxes are referred to as Ad Valorem Taxes and the revenues generated are used to support the operation and services provided by each of the taxing authorities. Each year the newly proposed millage rates are published on the Notice of Proposed Property Taxes (TRIM or Truth in Millage) sent to property owners during the month of August. It is important to review the TRIM Notice since it provides details about the proposed millage rates, the new appraised values, and exemption information. The TRIM Notice provides the date, time and place of the taxing authority's budget hearing as well as contact information.

Tax Distribution

Exemptions

The Constitution of the State of Florida provides for a number of property exemptions that may reduce the taxable value of a property. Both the property and its residents must meet the qualification requirements as of January 1 of the year for which they are applying. Exemptions generally require the filing of an original application by March 1 of the year the exemption is first requested. Some exemptions are automatically renewed in subsequent years, while others require annual application and confirmation.

Visit our website at www.SC-PA.com for more information on qualifying and applying for the property exemptions and discounts.

Homestead Exemption

45% of parcels in Sarasota County enjoy the benefit of a homestead exemption, making it the most prevalent property exemption. Every person who owns and resides on real property in Florida on January 1 and makes the property their permanent residence is eligible to receive a homestead exemption of up to $50,000. The first $25,000 exemption applies to all property taxes, including school district taxes. The additional exemption of up to $25,000 applies to the assessed value between $50,000 and $75,000 and only to non-school taxes.

Save Our Homes Cap

The "Save Our Homes" (SOH) Cap provision puts a limit on the annual increases to the Assessed Value of homestead exempt property. It works by limiting annual increases in Assessed Value to no more than 3% or the amount of the Consumer Price Index, whichever is less. However, new construction is added at market value in the year after the improvements are done. On the first year the homestead exemption is granted, the Market Value and Assessed Value are equal. Thereafter, the increase in Assessed Value is limited by the annual SOH percent increase. The difference between Market Value and the capped Assessed Value is often called the "Save Our Homes" cap.

10% Assessment Limitation Cap

A 10% Assessment Limitation Cap on the Assessed Value of non-homestead residential and non-residential properties became effective with the 2009 Assessment Roll. The limitation remains with the property until a change of ownership or control of more than 50% occurs. The cap became permanent on January 1, 2019 when a new amendment was passed by the voters in the November 2019 elections.

Redevelopment Areas

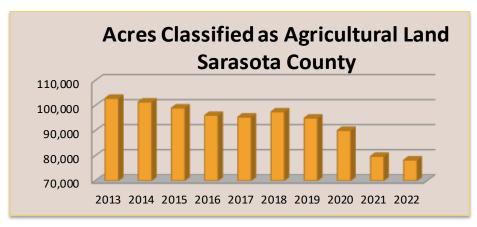

The Community Redevelopment Act of 1969 was created by the State Legislature so that county and municipal governments could address the deteriorating and adverse conditions of specific communities and neighborhoods. It allows the local government to designate a Community Redevelopment Area (CRA) if that area meets certain criteria such as the presence of substandard or inadequate structures, a shortage of affordable housing, inadequate infrastructure, or inadequate parking or roadways. The purpose of a CRA is to allow a portion of the tax dollars to be used specifically for redevelopment purposes in the designated area. Funding of these projects begins with Tax Increment Financing (TIF), which is a method for leveraging public dollars to stimulate private investment in the CRA district. The dollar value of all property in the CRA is determined as of a given date and "frozen". All tax revenues generated from any increases in real property values (over the frozen value) are used for redevelopment efforts in the CRA district.

Manufactured (Mobile) Homes

A manufactured home may be classified as either real property or as a motor vehicle. If the manufactured home owner owns or has beneficial interest to the land where the home is located the home is considered real property and valued as an improvement to the land. In this case, the resident owner may be eligible for a homestead exemption. Typically, manufactured homes in Resident Owned Communities are valued as real property when the owner of the home becomes a stock member of the community and receives a 99-year proprietary lease. If the land is rented, the manufactured home is considered a motor vehicle and the attachments to the home (carports, screen porch, etc.) are classified and placed on the assessment rolls as tangible personal property.
